Overview

Daisy accepts instructions in all of chambers' practice areas.

Before coming to the Bar, Daisy was the Judicial Assistant to the Vice-President of the Court of Appeal, Lord Justice Underhill. During this time, she worked on prominent employment cases including Asda Stores Ltd v Brierley [2019] EWCA Civ 44 and Uber BV v Aslam [2018] EWCA Civ 2748.

Daisy has also worked as a Research Assistant in the Commercial and Common Law Team at the Law Commission. She assisted with drafting a paper on the rights of investors under contract and trusts law.

Employment & Discrimination

Daisy regularly appears in multi-day final hearings, costs hearings, and judicial mediations. She has been successful in a range of cases, including against barristers many years her senior.

Daisy is experienced in drafting pleadings, advices and skeleton arguments in a range of employment matters including TUPE, trade union dismissals, unlawful inducement, whistleblowing, discrimination, flexible working, and unlawful deductions from wages.

Daisy has advised clients on international jurisdiction, applicable forum, and the territorial scope of legislation. She has also advised on employment matters in the civil courts.

Recent work

- Assisted Ben Cooper KC and Robert Moretto in preparation for Ghosh v Judicial Appointments Commission. The claimant, an applicant for the role of Deputy High Court Judge, brought a claim against the Judicial Appointments Commission for direct and indirect race discrimination.
- Successfully represented a union in a claim for discrimination brought by an ex-member.
- Successfully resisted an appeal against a Registrar's Order in the EAT.
- Successfully represented an NHS Trust in a seven-day whistleblowing hearing. The context for this claim was a finding by the ICO that the Trust had breached data protection legislation when it shared an employee's end of probation report with members of staff.
- Successfully represented a respondent GP Practice in an eight-day hearing. An ex-Partner of the Practice brought a claim (with a pleaded value of over £150,000) for sex and maternity/pregnancy discrimination and constructive expulsion under ss.44 and 46 Equality Act 2010. The claim involved allegations that Covid-19 related decisions made by the Practice during the first lockdown (and while the claimant was on maternity leave) were discriminatory.
- Succeeded in a costs application against a claimant who had been legally represented up until the costs hearing. The respondent was awarded 100% of its claimed costs on the basis that the claimant had unreasonably pursued claims which had no merit.
- Successfully represented the claimant in five-day reasonable adjustments claim. The claimant's employer had refused (on the basis of its own HR advice) to move him to another role, despite evidence that his role was exacerbating his anxiety.
- Successfully represented the respondent in a five-day religious discrimination hearing. The claimant, a social worker, made allegations that she had been instructed by her employer, a Council, to wear a rainbow-coloured lanyard at work. She claimed she had refused to do so on the basis of her faith.

- Assisted Nadia Motraghi in drafting allegations in preparation for a disciplinary hearing under a Trust's MHPS policy.
- Successfully represented the claimant in a four-day disability discrimination and unfair dismissal hearing. This claim involved long term sickness absence during the pandemic. At a separate remedy hearing the claimant was awarded his full Schedule of Loss. This included compensatory losses for a period of more than one year post-dismissal (despite the claimant not having applied for any other jobs) on the basis that he could not reasonably be expected to look for work earlier. The tribunal also awarded the full 25% Acas uplift on the basis of a failure by the respondent to conduct the necessary investigations to establish the claimant's medical position.
- Successfully represented a respondent NHS Trust in a four-day sexual harassment hearing. The claimant, a trainee, made various allegations of sexual harassment against her supervisor.
- Successfully represented the claimant, a minister of religion, in a three-day hearing to establish worker-status, cross examining multiple witnesses with the assistance of a Punjabi translator.
- Established employee-status for a claimant employed by a specialist recruitment company involved in a complex web of agencies.
- Assisted Rebecca Tuck KC in preparing for a three-week race discrimination hearing. This included interviewing fifteen witnesses and drafting their witness statements.
- Advised an employer on clawing back a redundancy payment in the civil courts after an employee was re-hired.

Personal Injury & Civil

Daisy has a varied civil law practice, including a busy court practice encompassing trials and interim hearings. She is regularly instructed to draft pleadings and advice in fast-track and multi-track cases involving breach of contract, breach of statutory duty, employers' liability, public liability, and occupiers' liability.

Daisy has represented parties at inquests and advised on fatal accident claims. She has experience in advising in cases involving young people, vulnerable individuals, and claimants who lack capacity.

Recent and current work

- Currently advising on a high value fatal accident claim.

- Currently advising on an RTA which left the claimant with chronic pain.
- Drafted a defence to a defective premises/escape of water claim.
- Drafted pleadings and advised on a claim involving a child who sustained lifelong injuries in an RTA. Liability was admitted post-issue, and a favourable settlement was reached.
- Represented a successful claimant in a FT trial, significantly beating the defendant's Part 36 offer. The claimant was a cyclist involved in an accident with a taxi driver.
- Drafted particulars of claim and advised on a claim involving breach of occupiers' liability, breach of contract and breach of the Consumer Rights Act 2015.
- Successfully represented the claimant in a food poisoning claim brought under the Package Travel Regulations.
- Represented the family of the deceased at a one-day inquest.
- Successfully defended a product liability claim brought in the small claims court.

Professional Discipline & Regulator

Daisy welcomes instructions at all stages of fitness to practise proceedings. Daisy has experience in representing professionals at interim order hearings.

Recent work

- Succeeded before the HCPC in an (opposed) application for anonymity. The registrant was under investigation by his employer into alleged sexual misconduct towards a colleague. Daisy successfully argued that no interim order should be imposed.
- Succeeded before the HCPC in arguing that no interim order should be imposed in circumstances where the registrant was under police investigation for serious sexual assault. The panel also granted the registrant anonymity.

- Assisted Ben Collins KC in preparing for a police disciplinary matter.
- Assisted Nadia Motraghi in drafting allegations in preparation for a disciplinary hearing under an NHS Trust's MHPS policy.

Data Protection

Daisy has advised on liability and quantum in claims involving GDPR breaches, misuse of private information and breach of confidence. She has also advised employers on dealing with data subject access requests.
